

Preface

AKGCT is heading towards the 59th year of its functioning in the national and Kerala higher education scenario. The organization has been striving to ensure the quality of the academic, professional and personal lives of its members. With the slogan of 'education for liberation', we have been trying to inculcate such positive values as equity, social justice, promotion of the marginalized and so on in the structural and functional areas of education. The editorial board has taken care not to compromise on the quality of the material chosen for publication. I am extremely grateful to the members of the advisory board for their constant help and encouragement to finish this herculean task. Let me also express my sincere gratitude to all those who have contributed their valuable research papers to this cause. Finally let me hope that the academic community in our organization will always boost and modify this academic journal through its creative contribution and productive criticism.
